COULD NOT SUSPEND

The Attorney General Gives Opinion as to Boyd.

Attorney General Andrews yesterday rendered an opinion to Auditor J. H. Fisher to the effect that James H. Boyd was entitled to his salary as Superintendent of Public Works during the time of his suspension and prior to his removal by the Senate. The ruling does not take into consideration the former holding of the Auditor that the Territory can withhold salary, or any money due an employee, when such employee owes money to the government.

The Attorney General holds that the Organic Act gave the Governor no power to suspend. It concludes: "It seems clear, therefore, that the Superintendent of Public Works could not be removed without the consent of the Senate. Nor does it seem that he could be suspended. There is no reference to suspension in the Organic Act, and it has been held that a power of removal would not include the power of suspension. Hence, with no reference to suspension in the Organic Act, and with an absolute rule with respect to removal, an attempted suspension would appear to be illegal and void."

"James H. Boyd was undoubtedly the officer de jure up to the date of his removal by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. By an officer de jure is meant one who has a legal right to the office. It is very doubtful whether the acting Superintendent of Public Works was even an officer de facto, as his occupation of the office was consummated by force. He did not claim to be Superintendent of Public Works, for he was in fact the Secretary of the Territory. It has been held that where the title to an office is in dispute and the one in possession steps out with no intention of abandoning the office, or of giving it to the other person, who with full knowledge of the facts steps in and immediately proceeds to do business, as though he were in fact the officer, as between two such persons, the one previously in office must be regarded as the officer de facto. Looking at it in this light, James H. Boyd was not only the officer de jure during this period, but the officer de facto as well.

"Admitting, however, that the acting Superintendent of Public Works was the officer de facto, and that the salary had been paid to him, the situation would be a doubtful one. While the authorities agree that the officer de jure is entitled to the salary, yet there is conflict as to how he shall pursue his remedy. Some of the decisions hold that he can collect from the government, notwithstanding the fact that the salary has been paid to the officer de facto. Other decisions hold that he must seek his remedy against such de facto officer, and that the government is not liable when the salary has been paid to the officer de facto. But in this case no such question is presented, the salary has not been paid to the acting Superintendent of Public Works, and under the circumstances the right of the de jure officer to collect is beyond question."

"It is my opinion, therefore, that James H. Boyd is entitled to the salary attached to the office of Superintendent of Public Works and unpaid to him from the date of his appointment to the date of his removal by and with the consent and advice of the Senate."

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY is intended especially for coughs, colds, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous results. It is especially prized by mothers because it contains nothing injurious; and there is not the least danger in giving it, even to babies. It always cures and cures quickly. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.

SAVED BY A CRATE.

They dubbed him "Scituate Bill," as it was on Scituate Beach that he had been found, a fisherman, washed up from out of the sea. They worked over "Bill" and brought him to. He had a story, "Bill" did. "Twas this: "We were out fishin,' me an' Joe, 'n' th' dory—'gan to blow—first thing we knowed a schooner bore down on us—spilled us out—dory sank—so'd Joe—waves high's mountings—schooner stood by—trun a crate overboard—I boarded it—cum 'shore on— "On what, "Bill"? "On a name, blow me hawsepipes," said "Bill." "Yep, in that crate was one of them Douglas Patent Caskets—'f been 'nother kind, sunk sure." And the Douglas will save you expense and annoyance if you have one installed. Fully guaranteed against imperfections in workmanship and material. Call up Main 61, or call on Bath, the plumber, 165 King street.

A WORD TO FARM TOILERS.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The Home Friend of the Farmer and His Family.

After the labors and toils of the summer time, and harvesting of crops in the early autumn, many of our farmers, their wives, daughters, and sons, find themselves in a condition of health demanding careful attention if suffering is to be avoided later on. Many experience kidney trouble in some form; with some the liver is torpid; there is biliousness, nausea, and vomiting, with loss of appetite and depression of spirits. Thousands who have been exposed to cold, damp winds and rains while toiling in the harvest fields, now feel the twinges of terrible rheumatism; others run down by worry, overwork, and irregular dieting, are tormented with the pangs of dyspepsia. To the thousands of run down, sickly, and half dead men and women in farm homes we recommend with all honesty and confidence the worker's friend, Paine's Celery Compound, the only medicine that can quickly and fully restore strength to the weak body and vigor to the muscles. Paine's Celery Compound tones the stomach; it removes poisonous acids from the blood which cause rheumatism; it feeds the weak and diseased nerves and banishes neuralgic tortures; it purifies the blood and gives true vitality and life. The use of Paine's Celery Compound in autumn means the establishing of a perfect physical vigor to withstand the rigors of a severe winter.
